Let Your Kids GO WILD at Wildlands Conservancy!

(Emmaus, Pa., May 30, 2008) – With the school year coming to an end are you looking for something creative, fun and educational for your kids to do? Let them GO WILD at Wildlands Conservancy’s summer camps.

GO WILD! Summer Camps have fun-filled activities designed to help children develop an appreciation for nature. They’ll learn about the natural world by hiking along woodland paths, tubing down the creek or racing through the meadow chasing after a butterfly. Campers also frequently have visits from the education animals including Stinky the Skunk or the magnificent birds of prey. The summer-camp programs are open to kids 3 to 13 years old and run at different times during the day to accommodate varying schedules. There is an assortment of summer camps that focus on one or more aspect of outdoor adventure. Some summer camps spotlight one of the following: animals, water activities, hiking the Appalachian Trail or canoeing skills. Whatever the topic, whenever the time, one thing about GO WILD camps is always the same – camp is fun!

About Wildlands Conservancy

Wildlands Conservancy is dedicated to saving the natural treasures of the Lehigh Valley and the Lehigh River valley for current residents and future generations. Its mission is to preserve, protect, restore and enhance the land, water, ecological and recreational resources of the Lehigh Valley and the Lehigh River valley. Established in 1973, the Conservancy collaborates with partners throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to achieve its goals. As a non-profit, member-supported organization, the Conservancy has protected more than 46,000 acres of critical farmland and wildlands in 18 counties of eastern Pennsylvania. For more information, please visit www.wildlandspa.org.
